CLAIMANT’S MOTION TO GRANT FULL FAITH AND CREDIT FOR STATE COURT JUDGMENT

NOW COME the Claimants, JAMES SIMONDS and STEPHEN M. KOMIE, by and through their attorney, Stephen M. Komie, of the law firm, KOMIE AND ASSOCIATES, and presents this Motion to Grant State Court Judgment Full Faith and Credit. In support thereof states as follows:

1. That on May 24, 2007, the government filed a memorandum, styled, “United States’ Position Paper Regarding Suppression Issues.”
2. That in said memorandum, the government states: “Simonds has not, and indeed cannot, assert that his arrest was improper. (This is especially true because he has never challenged the arrest.)” Mem. at 11.
3. That the government’s statement is in error.

4. That the Claimant did in fact challenge his arrest in the proper forum and in the forum with jurisdiction over the criminal arrest, the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois.
5. That the government is fully aware of the Claimant's motion to quash arrest and suppress evidence, because the government was communicating with the Office of the State's Attorney throughout the proceedings in State Court.
6. That in order to rebut the argument, the Claimant did not contest his arrest in the proper forum, the Claimant seeks this Court's recognition of the State Court Judgment on this issue. A Certified and exemplified copy of the State Court Disposition and Judgment is attached as Exhibit A.
7. That the Full Faith and Credit Act provides, in pertinent part:

The records and judicial proceedings of any court of any such State, Territory or Possession, or copies thereof, shall be proved or admitted in other courts within the United States and its Territories and Possessions by the attestation of the clerk and seal of the court annexed, if a seal exists, together with a certificate of a judge of the court that the said attestation is in proper form.

Such Acts, records and judicial proceedings or copies thereof, so authenticated, shall have the same full faith and credit in every court within the United States and its Territories and Possessions as they have by law or usage in the courts of such State, Territory or Possession from which they are taken.
28 U.S.C. § 1738.

8. That pursuant to said statute this Court must afford the attached Judgment Full Faith and Credit. Id.; Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd., et al. v. Epstein, 516 U.S. 367, 373 (1996).
9. That the criminal charges against the Claimant, which were pending in an Illinois Criminal Court have been decided in Claimant's favor.
10. That pursuant to statute, this Court must grant the State Court Judgment full faith and credit as to the matters decided by the State Court. Id.
11. That longstanding principles of comity also demand such a result. See, e.g., Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37, 43-44 (State Courts to be free from interference by federal courts) (1971); Cf. D.C. Ct. of Appeals v. Feldman, 460 U.S. 462 (1983)(Rooker-Feldman doctrine provides federal courts do not have subject matter jurisdiction to review State Court adjudications).
12. That moreover, the government has claimed Mr. Simonds did not contest the arrest and then bootstrapped the argument that the Claimant was lawfully searched incident to arrest.
13. That this position is in error as the Circuit Court of Cook County has already decided the arrest was illegal.
14. That it is axiomatic in order to have a valid and proper search incident to arrest, one must first have a valid and lawful arrest. To construe this precedent in any other manner would clearly frustrate the entire purpose of the Fourth Amendment, in theory it would allow anyone to be arrested, searched, then charged based upon whatever evidence was found during this "search incident to arrest."

15. That respectfully, this Court must afford the State Court Judgment as to the legality of the arrest full faith and credit and does not have jurisdiction to even entertain the government's implied argument regarding the appropriateness of the State Court's Judgment. Id.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Claimants, JAMES SIMONDS and STEPHEN M. KOMIE, by and through their attorneys, pray this Honorable Court to enter an order Granting Full Faith and Credit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1738 to the judgment of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois on September 15, 2006 in People v. Simonds; to wit, Motion to Suppress is Sustained.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES SIMONDS and
STEPHEN M. KOMIE, Claimants,
by and through their attorneys,
KOMIE AND ASSOCIATES.

3 MR. KOMIE: Now, we analyze our case here, the reason they
4 want to take the bag off is for a sniff so that they can go to a
5 magistrate or a judge and say, judge, we've had the bags
6 submitted to a dog. The dog --

7 THE COURT: Alerted, right.

8 MR. KOMIE: Right. And so that, you know, we're in the --

9 THE COURT: Now we want to open it.

10 MR. KOMIE: Right.

11 THE COURT: Now we want to get --

12 MR. KOMIE: Right. So then --

13 THE COURT: And then call New Mexico and have their agents in 14 New Mexico take him off the train when he gets off.

15 MR. KOMIE: Right. And so --

16 THE COURT: That's -- you're exactly right. That's exactly
17 how it should be done.

18 MR. KOMIE: Right.

19 THE COURT: And it wasn't done in this case because the 20 officers had zero probable cause to go into the bags.

21 The only question is we are content I guess with 22 allowing bags to move interstate in light of all the trains that
23 have been blown up in Europe, all countries, Spain, England,
24 Germany, et cetera but in the U.S. of A everyone has a Fourth
